2. Fees and charges are to be paid in Australian dollars.
3. Students commencing part way through a term will be required to pay on a pro-rata basis.
4. Late payments will not take into account missed classes.

Low Class Numbers (Running classes at a loss, ie when class numbers are less than the number stipulated) In general classes will be cancelled if two days before the start of the class there are less than the required number enrolled. It is important that classes which are subsidised by government funding operate on their stipulated minimum numbers. The Committee of Management/Coordinator has the discretion to allow some classes to proceed, even if they are operating on less than the required minimum. The basis of this decision would include:
 - a. Subsidy available for the course;
 - b. Support for a new, valuable program; and
 - c. Firm belief that this course must be provided.

If the student/employer/ /referring agency does not pay all fees and charges by the due date they are deemed to be an ANH debtor. Late payment of fee may incur a penalty, which is determined by the Coordinator.
